Preventing Misuse/Abuse of Prescriptions

Columbus (August 31, 2011) – Join the Columbus Association of Health Underwriters (CAHU) on Tuesday, September 13th at The Jessing Center, The Josephinum, 7625 North High Street (Rt. 23) in Columbus, Ohio for Preventing Misuse/Abuse of Prescriptions. This course will be presented by Jeff Plozin and Wayne Miller.

Jeff Polzin graduated from The Ohio State University with a B.S. in Psychology in 1992 and a B.S. in Pharmacy in 1999. He has been a retail pharmacist for the past 10 years and is currently the Pharmacy Manager at the Discount Drug Mart in Mt. Gilead. Jeff is co-owner of Immunization Consultants of Central Ohio, a mobile immunization clinic. He got involved with Generation Rx three years ago and has been working with The Ohio State University's College of Pharmacy and Cardinal Health to promote awareness about the misuse and abuse of prescription medications. Jeff is the chairman of the Academy of Pharmacy of Central Ohio's Generation Rx Committee and the Liaison for the OSU Association of Student Pharmacist's Generation Rx Committee.

Wayne Miller graduated from the University of Pittsburgh with a B.S. in Pharmacy. He owned and operated Miller's Pharmacy for 26 years. Wayne served a 4 year term on the Board of Pharmacy and worked with a Pharmacist Rehabilitation Organization (PRO) for 24 years. He has been a treasurer and trustee for the Ohio Pharmacist Association and is currently a lifetime member. Wayne is still very active with the Academy of Pharmacy of Central Ohio and has served 2 terms as president. He is very involved in his community and his church. Currently, Wayne is volunteering for the Horizon Program at the Marion Correctional Institute.
