INGRID MARTIN TO APPEAR ON FOX AND FRIENDS ON THURSDAY, MARCH 18

Cleveland (March 17, 2010) -

Ingrid Martin will be on Fox and Friends on Thursday morning to discuss how the threat of Obamacare cost her her job in the health insurance industry and how, if enacted, Obamacare will threaten over 50,000 jobs in Ohio, and nearly 1.4 million nationwide. She is tentatively scheduled to appear on the program at 8:30 AM.

A member of the Ohio Association of Health Underwriters (OAHU) and North East Ohio Health Underwriters Association (NEOHUA), Ingrid Martin attracted national attention when she confronted President Obama after his Strongsville, Ohio, speech on Monday afternoon. When she had the opportunity to meet him after the speech, she bluntly told the President, "I am not in favor of your plan"....and she then went on to debate the president on the topic for the next one to two minutes.

Following that posting, the story went viral and was posted on the front page of hotair.com and AOL.com. Thousands of Tweets in her name have been made on Twitter; and a Google Search of Ingrid Martin and Obama showed over 640,000 hits as blogs and news organizations around the country have picked up the story.

Ingrid, who resides in Brunswick, Ohio, has done numerous interviews from as far away as Portland Oregon, and was a special guest of Fox Business News on Tuesday, March 16.

The Ohio Association of Health Underwriters (OAHU) is a trade association representing agents, brokers and other professionals concerned with health insurance. The association works for reform to provide an improved, accessible and affordable health insurance system for all Ohio consumers. In addition, OAHU supports its five local associations in promoting free-market delivery of health care insurance and the value of the professional agent.
