“High Risk Health Pool” is Topic for Western Reserve Association of Health Underwriters October Meeting

Poland (October 18, 2007) – Join the Western Reserve Association of Health Underwriters (WRAHU) at their October meeting to be held on Wednesday, October 24 at St. Elizabeth Hospital, 8401 Market Street, Boardman. Keith Shoemaker, lobbyist for the Ohio Association of Health Underwriters, will speak on the High Risk Health Pool. This presentation has not been offered before in the state of Ohio and should be of interest to everyone. Shoemaker will also provide an update on what is happening in Columbus and its effects. A tour of the hospital will be available after the meeting. Coffee and Danish will be available at 8:15 AM and the meeting will begin at 8:30 AM. The program portion of the meeting is approved for 1 CE credit hour. There is no cost for members or guests who are in the industry to attend. Reservations may be made by calling WRAHU at 330-394-8901 or e-mail john@commercialfs.com.

The Western Reserve Association of Health Underwriters (WRAHU) is a trade association representing agents, brokers and other professionals concerned with health insurance. The mission of the WRAHU is to educate the public and decision makers about the value health insurance professionals deliver in helping consumers access the health care system and, through education and association involvement, increase members' ability to better serve consumers.
