Western Reserve Association of Health Underwriters hosts 4-hour Ethics Course

Poland, Ohio (February 23, 2015) – Western Reserve Association of Health Underwriters (WRAHU) will host a 4-hour ethics program and luncheon in a joint meeting with the National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors (NAIFA) on Thursday, March 19 at The Fifth Season Banquet Center, 1400 Niles Canfield Road, Mineral Ridge, OH 44440.

The course will be presented by: Ray Copenheaver, CLTC LTCP, of Ohio Agent Services - Long Term Care. Four hours of continuing education credits are available for this program, which satisfies the Ohio 3 hour Ethics CE requirement.

Lunch and networking will begin at 11:30 a.m., followed by the 4-hour ethics program at Noon.

Cost to attend this event is $15.00 for WRAHU and OAHU members; $35.00 for guests and non-members. Reservations may be made by emailing your name and company information to Jessica Claughton at Jessica@ohioahu.org. Deadline to register is Friday, March 13.

For more information about this event or to join WRAHU, please visit www.wrahu.org.

###

The Western Reserve Association of Health Underwriters (WRAHU) is a trade association representing agents, brokers and other professionals concerned with health insurance. The mission of the WRAHU is to educate the public and decision makers about the value health insurance professionals deliver in helping consumers access the health care system and, through education and association involvement, increase members' ability to better serve consumers.

WRAHU's management team is J&M Business Solutions, LLC, a woman owned business established in 1994.
